EUROPAfest Summer Edition launches Summer Music Academy Sinaia 2015

Between 16 and 29 July 2015, in Sinaia, takes place EUROPAfest Summer Edition, an event under the High Patronage of the Royal House, which includes concerts of classical and jazz music for the large audience and master-classes for the musicians who want a successful career.

The first event, simultaneously launched in the entire Europe, Summer Music Academy Sinaia is organised by jmEvents and European Music Academy – France in partnership with Sinaia City Hall. The event offers master-classes at international standards, for violin, viola, cello and flute under the lead of elite artists and teachers from famous European academies.

In 2015 the guests are Remus Azoitei / London, famous violinist and Teacher at the Royal Academy of Music London; Constantin Serban / France, Concert-Master of the National Orchestra "Pays de la Loire" and Professor at the Nantes Conservatory; Pierre-Yves Artaud / France, honored artist, awarded with 5 Grand Prix du disque in France and Japan and Professor at the National Superior Conservatory of Music in Paris; Cristina Bellu / Switzerland, president ESTA France, cello professor at the Music University from Lugano and at the Lausanne Conservatory; Fernand Iaciu / France, Concert-Master of the National Orchestra from Lille, Professor at the Conservatory in Lille; Agnes Sten von Kamienski / Germany, violin professor at Musikbetonte Grundschule, Board member of ESTA International; Ruxandra Serban / France, cello leader of the National Orchestra „Pays de la Loire”; Wolfgang Klos / Austria, violin professor at the University of Music and Arts from Vienna, President ESTA Austria.

Over 200 individual classes will be followed by sessions of coaching, mentorship and career counseling. After 5 successful editions in France, the event is at its 4th year in Romania, enjoying success. Until now, over 300 musicians from Belgium, France, Netherlands, USA, China, Ireland, Costa Rica, Germany and Romania have benefited from the classes of the summer academy, having notable results.

Summer Music Academy Sinaia addresses the young artists, up to 30 years old. Registrations can be submitted until 15 June. More details can be found on the organiser's website: www.jmevents.ro

EUROPAfest Summer edition takes place at the Peles Castle, the Royal Domain, Casino Sinaia Hall, Catholic Church, „George Enescu” Memorial House, „Carmen Sylva” Cultural Centre, each of the locations having the note of regality, artistic passion and dedication.

Luigi Gageos, EUROPAfest Director, states „Through these events we wish to offer to the large audience, both Romanians and tourists, an oasis of relaxation, far away from the crowded cities, with magical summer evenings, to put Sinaia – a city with stone paths leading to the Castle – on the map of the major events, as one of the most beautiful cultural - touristic destination of Europe”.
